With this declaration of electoral coalition merge, the electoral coalitions listed below merge into a new electoral coalition. The name of the new electoral coalition and the personal information of the new electoral coalition's proxy must be included in this merge form.

The proxies of the partial electoral coalitions act as signatories to assure that they have the consent of the candidates, who have joined their respective electoral coalitions through their declarations of candidacy, to merge the electoral coalitions. The partial electoral coalitions must be presented in the desired order of the new electoral coalition.
